Maine Youth Suicide Prevention

Education, Resources and Support—It's Up to All of Us.

YOUTH VIOLENCE/SUICIDE

The Maine Youth Suicide Prevention Program is a collaborative initiative of the Children's Cabinet, representing Commissioners and senior staff from the Departments of Health and Human Services; Education; Corrections; and Public Safety. Multiple program strategies reach the general public, young people at-risk, and individuals in direct contact with youths. As part of this statewide program, the Office of Substance Abuse Information Resource Center has suicide prevention informational materials for teens and adults. Publications available for distribution include: book covers, a suicide prevention Information Booklet, posters with the statewide crisis hotline, a suicide prevention resources specialty catalog, print and audio/visual educational materials, Maine data, and other informational materials. To order these suicide prevention materials call: 1-800-499-0027, TTY: 1-800-215-7604, Email: osa.ircosa@maine.gov, Web: <http://www.maine.gov/suicide>.

For the Maine Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper training manual, see the MCD Website at: <http://www.mcd.org/domestic/suicide.htm>

The Maine Law & Civics Education Program at the University of Southern Maine School of Law and the Peace Studies Program of the University of Maine, grantees of the Injury Prevention Program, offer a variety of resource materials on the roots of violence and conflict, violence and bullying prevention and conflict resolution through their lending libraries. Contact Maine Law by calling 780-4159, and Peace Studies by calling 581-2609.

Kids and Guns: Making the Right Choice - 30 minutes. 2000. Ursus Productions and the Maine Injury Prevention Program. This video and lesson guide are designed to educate children in grades 6-8, parents and concerned adults about staying safe around guns. Performed by students, not actors, situations involving firearms are demonstrated. Segments include youth suicide and discussions with a shooting victim; and parents who lost their young son. Suggested for audiences of 25 or less. For use by law enforcement, firearm safety instructors, school programs, public safety, youth groups and educators.
